

Man, 80, Killed by Motorcycle

An eighty-year-old man was killed instantly yesterday morning, when he was run down by a motorcycle at Twenty-fourth street, near Ridge avenue. He is John Neiler, of 1733 North Twenty-fifth street. The driver of the machine, Fletcher Stevens, colored, of Ridge avenue near Ninth street, was arrested by police of the Nineteenth and Oxford streets station, and will be given a hearing this morning.